

Name: _____ Date: _____ Hour: _____

Midterm Study Guide: Units 1 and 2

Directions: Use your notes and what you learned to complete this study guide. Big Idea Cards and Vocabulary Cards can be found at <https://anchorbaysocialstudies7.weebly.com> under Units of Study (Units 1 and 2).

Vocabulary

1. Perspective/point of view –
2. Primary source -
3. Secondary source –
4. Turning points –
5. Region –
6. Paleolithic Age –
7. Adaptation –
8. Foragers -
9. Prehistoric -
10. Human migration –

11. The Great Thaw –

12. Neolithic Age –

13. Agrarian -

14. Social institutions/cultural institutions (Know the six we learned about in class.) -

15. Culture –

16. Domestication –

17. Surplus-

18. Specialization –

19. Agricultural Revolution –

20. Global patterns -

21. Industrial Revolution

Make Connections – Apply What You Learned

Paleolithic Age

How do the following terms relate to the Paleolithic Age? Do not write definitions. Explain how each term relates to the Paleolithic Age.

Old Stone Age -

Foragers -

Nomadic -

Human migration -

Ice Age -

Adaptation -

Technology -

Pre-historic -

Non-linguistic -

World population –

Global patterns –

Make Connections – Apply What You Learned

Transition Period Between the Paleolithic Age and the Neolithic Age

The Great Thaw

What was The Great Thaw?

How did The Great Thaw affect plants and animals?

How did The Great Thaw affect people?

How did life change for people after The Great Thaw?

Why was The Great Thaw a significant turning point in history?

Make Connections – Apply What You Learned

Neolithic Age

How do the following terms relate to the Neolithic Age? Do not write definitions. Explain how each term relates to the Neolithic Age.

New Stone Age -

Agrarian -

Settlements -

Social institutions (cultural institutions) -

Domestication -

Specialization -

Surplus -

World population -

Culture -

Society –

Global patterns -

You will also need to know the following:

Map Skills

Be able to identify the seven continents on a map.

Be able to identify oceans on a map.

Be able to analyze and compare two maps of the same location.

Calendar Systems

Given a chart of calendar systems, find similarities and differences between the calendars.

Written/Essay Portion of the Midterm Exam

Two days before the final exam, you will be given the written portion/essay portion of the midterm. You will be able to use any handouts you were given. You will also be able to use you Big Idea Cards and Vocabulary notes for Unit 1 and Unit 2. Notes will not be supplied to you. You will need to bring your saved materials.

