

Word Cards

9  power the ability, strength, and capacity to do something  Example: By commanding the strongest army in the world, the emperor had the power to take over foreign lands and their inhabitants. (SS070403)	10  authority the right to use power to enforce rules or give orders  Example: Empires in Era 3 wielded power and authority in different ways. (SS070403)
11  democracy rule by the people or a government in which many people are able to participate  Example: The United States' government is a representative democracy. (SS070403)	12  dictator a ruler with absolute power  Example: Although Sulla was the dictator of Rome for only two years, he had total power for that time. (SS070403)
13  republic a government with elected leaders  Example: After the development of the United States Constitution, the U.S. became a republic. (SS070403)	14  citizen someone officially recognized as a full member of a nation or kingdom  Example: When the United States was first formed, Native Americans and African-Americans were not considered citizens. (SS070403)

15 aristocracy a government in which a few elite citizens rule and have power  Example: The members of the Roman Senate could be considered aristocracy. (SS070403)	16 autocracy  a system of government in which all power is held by one person Example: Rome became an autocracy when it turned into the Roman Empire and had an emperor. (SS070403)
--	--