

Name _____ Hour _____

Unit 4 Quiz Review (Modified)

empire	dynasty	alliance	city-state	bureaucracy
power	authority	dictator	citizen	elite
democracy	aristocracy	autocracy	republic	slavery

1. What is a line of hereditary rulers of a country or empire?
2. What is a city that forms an independent state?
3. What is the right to use power to enforce rules or give orders?
4. Who is officially recognized as a full member of a nation or kingdom?
5. What is a government with elected leaders?
6. What is an extensive group of states or countries under a single, supreme authority?
7. What is the ability, strength, and capacity to do something called?
8. Who is a ruler with absolute power?
9. What is a government in which a few elite citizens rule and have power called?
10. Who are considered to be the best in a particular society or category, usually because of their power, talent, or wealth?

11. What is a group of non-elected officials of a government or organization that carry out the rules, laws and ideas in order to organize and manage people, resources, and territory called?
 12. What is a system in which some people are held as property by others and forced to do different types of work?
 13. What is a system of government where all power is held by one person?
 14. What is it called when people or groups of people, like-city-states, work together for a common goal?
 15. What is rule by the people or a government in which many people are able to participate called?
-
16. What is the term that means believing in more than one god?
 17. What is a trade route?
 18. Do empires start from scratch? Why or why not?
 19. What eventually happened to empires?
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
 20. What kind of system needed to control large territories and lots of people?

21. Name the levels of a social hierarchy starting at the top.
22. When and where did major empires develop?
23. Was slavery an important part of the overall economy in the Roman Empire?
Why or why not?
24. What is taking control of a place or people with military force called?
25. What four things did empires develop?
26. What were empires organized around?
27. Which era was characterized by the rise of a series of important, large empires throughout Afroeurasia?
28. When did empires emerge?
29. What led to the exchange of goods as well as ideas and cultures?
30. Who held most of the power in the large empires that developed for human societies?

aristocrats

merchants

artisans

scholar

31. Who is dedicated to the pursuit of learning and the building of knowledge?
32. Who are the people that buy and sell goods for a profit?
33. Who are the workers skilled in a trade or craft, and makes things by hand?
34. Who are the members of a ruling class or of the nobility and were usually wealthy landowners?